Editors-in-Chief: Hans Morten Lossius (Norway), Kjetil Søreide (Norway)

Scandinavian Journal of Trauma, Resuscitation and Emergency Medicine (SJTREM)* is the official journal of the Scandinavian Networking Group on Trauma and Emergency Management, and is affiliated with 9 more societies involved in trauma, resuscitation, and emergency medicine in Scandinavia.

SJTREM encompasses all aspects of the epidemiology, etiology, pathophysiology, diagnosis, treatment, rehabilitation and prevention of acute illnesses and trauma, with particular interest in the multidisciplinary aspects of the chain of survival. Contributions focusing on education, training, implementation, as well as ethical and socio-economic aspects of trauma management are welcome. Studies based on qualitative scientific methods are encouraged.

The journal considers the following article types: original research, reviews, case reports, letters to the Editor and commentaries. For further details, see www.sjtrem.com/info/about/.

SJTREM is tracked/indexed by PubMed, PubMed Central, Medline and Google Scholar.

Reasons for publishing in SJTREM:

- All articles published in the journal are open access; universally accessible online without charge.
- High visibility for your work - anyone with Internet access can read your article, free of charge.
- Included in PubMed - making your work easy to find, read and cite.
- Articles are published immediately upon acceptance.
- Authors retain the copyright of their articles.
- Electronic submission and peer-review makes the whole process of publishing your article simple and efficient.
- Publishing online means unlimited space for figures, extensive datasets and video footage.
- Professional formatting meets the standards expected by researchers.
